The use of words to express our feelings are encouraged and modeled.

Consequences of Unacceptable Behavior

2. The child may lose a privilege that is related to their inappropriate behavior.
3. In instances where improper behavior is repeated or the safety of other children is at risk, the behavior will be discussed with the parents.
4. If after involving parents, and the behavior continues, the child may be removed from camp. The Director retains the right to determine if a child is compatible and/or benefiting from the camp program.
